Dear Sam,

I hope this message finds well. I would like to ask if you could help encourage members of the Indian Weed Science Society to be a member of the IWSS and in the process help support the IWSS goal of strengthening regional weed science societies and promoting the education and professional development of young weed scientists globally. This year we are supporting 25 graduate students to present papers at the International Weed Science Congress in Hangzhou. In the last three years we supported students and young scientists to participate in two APWSS conferences and one weed science meeting in Lisbon, Portugal. Please forward this message to weed scientists in India. They may pay membership dues via the WSSA or the IWSS websites.

I look forward to seeing you in Hangzhou.
Warmest regards,

Nilda
